ALFREDO GIAMMANCO DRONESCAPE
"Space Voyager"

ALFREDO GIAMMANCO DRONESCAPE

A photograph of the Space Voyager satellite in space. The satellite is a dark, spherical object with several long, thin antennas extending from it. It is set against a dark, starry background with a faint, glowing nebula or galaxy in the distance.

After a first album and a couple of tracks for the anniversary compilations, Alfredo Giammanco Dronescape, who has always been a tireless performer of splendid concerts dedicated to spatial and electronic sounds in total space-time symbiosis with modular systems and subtractive and additive synthesis, comes out for Nostress with an album "Space Voyager" resulting from a live recording of 2018 at the Altuestival in Castellaccio (San Martino delle Scale) in his Sicily that motivates, inspires him and opens up universes that from the Mediterranean go up towards the cosmos for journeys conveyed for over 45 minutes from the sonic wonder of the GRP Syntesizer A4 system.

Dopo un primo album e un paio di brani per le compilation anniversario, Alfredo Giammanco Dronescape, da sempre instancabile performer di splendidi concerti all'insegna dei suoni spaziali ed elettronici in totale simbiosi spazio-tempo con sistemi modulari e sintesi sottrattiva e additiva, esce per Nostress con un album dal titolo "Space Voyager" frutto di una registrazione live del 2018 al Altuestival a Castellaccio (San Martino delle Scale) nella sua Sicilia che lo motiva, lo ispira e apre universi che dal Mediterraneo si spingono in alto verso il cosmo per viaggi veicolati per oltre 45 minuti dalla meraviglia sonora del sistema GRP Syntesizer A4.
